Ministry of Defence (MOD) Schools

EAL Specialist Class Teacher

Hornbill School, Brunei

Vacancy Number: 1640516

Salary: £23,720 - £39,406

Required for September 2019 or as soon as possible thereafter

Hornbill School is a highly respected and vibrant school with a strong family ethos and values at our heart, right in the centre of the British Forces Brunei Community and the Nepali Community. With around 72% of pupils having English as an additional language, we have created the exciting new position of a Specialist EAL Teacher and are looking for the right candidate who can support the next stage of our development.

The successful candidate will have to demonstrate to the selection panel that past experiences are appropriate and applicable to the needs of Hornbill School, and they have contributed to the applicant developing the skills necessary to be a successful EAL Specialist Teacher.

If you have a proven track record of outstanding teaching, and a working knowledge of supporting EAL pupils to access the full extent of a primary curriculum and would like further information about the post and also instructions on how to apply, then please use the link below to access Civil Service Jobs; once on the website select "Show more", and then tick the "Show overseas jobs"

The MoD is an Equal Opportunities employer and seeks to reflect the diverse community it serves. Applications are welcome from anyone who meets the stated requirements.

Closing Date: 15th September 2019

Safeguarding Statement:

Ministry of Defence (Schools) is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We particularly welcome applications from under represented groups including ethnicity, gender, transgender, age, disability, sexual orientation or religion.
