Croydon College's vision is to inspire and support students to achieve Further and Higher Education qualifications, develop employability skills and to change lives. We are passionate about teaching and learning and we work closely with our local community, employers and businesses, with the aim of providing learning opportunities for all.

We have a very exciting opportunity for a motivational and talented manager to join this growing team. You will have outstanding leadership skills and appropriate experience to lead and deliver to: ESOL 15-18.

You will be responsible for the quality of curriculum delivery and development and be able to work strategically to motivate students and staff to achieve at the highest level. You will work collaboratively with the Head of School, and other Academic Leaders, to ensure that the students have a high quality learning experience, leading to excellent outcomes and progression.

A teaching qualification together with a relevant degree, or appropriate higher level qualification is essential, together with extensive successful teaching experience. Qualified to CELTA level or equivalent would be an advantage. You will be required to demonstrate excellent communication and organisational skills, and be committed to the professional development of yourself, and others, to deliver outstanding results.

In return we offer generous leave, competitive benefits and a commitment to your continuing personal development and training in an environment that encourages excellence, creativity and diversity.

Closing date for completed applications: 22 September 2019

Interviews are likely to take place: week commencing 23 September 2019
