

SEND Lecturers (Tower Hamlets Campus)

School:	New City College	Posted:	30th September 2019
Location:	London, Middlesex	Expires:	27th October 2019 12:00 PM
Contract:	Permanent	Start Date:	As soon as possible
Term:		Job ID:	1068281
Salary:	£26,361 - £40,788 FTE
Hours:	Full or Part Time

New City College is the dynamic group of further education colleges in East London which comprises Tower Hamlets College, Hackney Community College, Epping Forest College Redbridge College, Havering College of Further & Higher Education and Havering Sixth form College. Our 6-college merger places the group at the forefront of further education in the region. With a turnover of £110m, 30,000 students and 2000 staff it is one of the strongest and most influential further education organisations in the country.

Our college environment is second to none. We have industry standard facilities and equipment at all campuses, expert staff and partnerships with other high profile organisations which all prepare students for progression to higher education or successful careers.

East London is dynamic, innovative and entrepreneurial. As we develop our longer term vision, we will continue to ensure that we invest in our staff and other resources to provide a distinctive offer and excellent, supportive learning environment which meets the needs of students and employers and prepares local people for the changing workforce of the area.

Lecturer in SEND

Tower Hamlets Campus

£26,361 - £40,788 FTE

We are currently looking for qualified, experienced and enthusiastic teachers to join our Foundation Learning team. Our department delivers a range of courses including independent living skills, catering, woodwork, communication, personal development, employability and enterprise. A commitment to working with young people/adults with additional support needs underpins all aspects of our work.

The post will include tutoring and teaching groups of 16-24 year olds and adult learners with learning disabilities and difficulties on a range of subjects including independent living skills, music, functional skills and Vocational Studies. The post will involve developing student's communication, independence and employability skills. An interest and commitment to personalised learning, a student-centred approach and experience of working with young people/adults with learning disabilities is essential.

You should have or be working towards an appropriate teaching qualification (e.g. DTLS or PGCE). You will be committed to developing programmes that meet the requirements of the College's quality framework.

There are full time and part time roles available. Please specify in the supporting statement which contract you are interested in. Please note that part time roles will result in a pro-rata salary.

Closing date: 27th October 2019

Interviews TBC

The closing date given is a guide only. There may be some occasions where we have to close a vacancy once sufficient applications have been received. It is therefore advisable that you submit your application as early as possible to avoid disappointment.

Safeguarding Statement:

New City College - London is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We particularly welcome applications from under represented groups including ethnicity, gender, transgender, age, disability, sexual orientation or religion.