Brickwork Lecturer

College location:	East Surrey College (Redhill)
Salary:	£24,321 - £34,625 (Subject to qualifications, skills and experience)
Hours:	Full time (37 hours/week)

We are currently seeking to appoint an inspirational and talented Brickwork Lecturer to join our friendly and professional Construction department.

In this exciting role you will have responsibility for delivering teaching and learning to our Brickwork apprenticeship students across levels 1 – 2.

Working closely with the Director of Learning, Programme Manager and the rest of the Construction team, you will have the chance to share your Brickwork industry knowledge and skills with learners to help them achieve at the highest level as well as driving continuous improvement within the College. You will act as a personal tutor for Level 1&2 students, promote attendance, participate in team meetings and contribute to the planning, development and review activities within your subject area. You will also teach act as a course leader, complete quality assurance processes and assess students work.

The successful candidate must have:

- A full teaching qualification (such as a PGCE, DTLS or Cert ED)
- A level 3 Brickwork qualification
- Experience delivering teaching with FE (and ideally to apprenticeship based students)
- Industrial experience

An Assessor qualification would also be advantageous.

If this sounds like you and you will enjoy working in a forward thinking, friendly, fast paced, changing environment with state of the art facilities, we would love to hear from you. In return, we offer a competitive salary, as well as staff benefits such a choice of two excellent pension schemes, life assurance, free onsite parking and access to our fully equipped gym along with discounted in house Spa and Salon treatments.

Closing Date: Sunday 15th March 2020*

(*Applications will however be shortlisted on a rolling basis and we reserve the right to interview and appoint before this closing date. We therefore encourage you to apply at the earliest opportunity to avoid disappointment)
