Morley College London

Morley College London is an Institute of Adult Learning with specialist designated institution status (SDI). Founded in 1889, we provide learning opportunities to over 12,000 people every year, specialising in Arts, Culture and Applied Sciences. The College is a lively and exciting place to work, offering a range of benefits and a friendly and supportive working environment, where each staff member is encouraged to develop their professional skills and experience. In February 2020, Morley College London will merge with Kensington and Chelsea College, running provision from sites in North Kensington, Chelsea and Waterloo. This is an exciting time to join a growing college, which is set to become one of the largest Institutes of Adult Learning in the country.

Experience in Gobelin tapestry weaving and experimental weaving e.g. soumak, whipping, knotting and rug pile techniques. Experience in managing mixed level groups. An interest in using unconventional materials and an understanding of the environmental impact of textiles.

Closing date: 5pm Monday 9th March 2020

Safeguarding Statement:

Morley College London is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We particularly welcome applications from under represented groups including ethnicity, gender, transgender, age, disability, sexual orientation or religion.
